NEWS FOR ALL

Reminder that Mid-Term Break is coming up in week 7 in February.

There will be no regular scheduled classes during the mid-term break (12-16 February).

Re-Enrollment for 2024-2025 School Year

We have reached the stage in our planning where we would like to ask you to confirm re-enrollment for your child(ren) for the coming school year. Organisation of the new school year is well underway, and we are expecting to open a number of new classes and welcome many new AIS students and families in August. As such, we want to ensure that continuing families are secured seats for their children in the new academic year, and your re-enrollment decisions are essential in this process.

We do recognise that some of you may be waiting for information regarding employment contracts and plans for your family, and this may be early for some to declare their intentions. It is absolutely ok to choose "Undecided" for now. We are asking any families who are certain of their plan for next school year, or who are a clear "Accept" or "Decline" seat for their child(ren) to please indicate this when we send the re-enrollment via Open Apply.

We expect to keep re-enrollment open until March, at which point we will follow-up directly with any undecided families, or anyone who has not responded by that time. We are appreciative of those who can already now share their re-enrollment decisions with us, as we work to put together the best possible plans for all of our students for the 2024-2025 school year.

MYP

Sexuality Education Week

Next week (Monday 29 January - Friday 2 February) is Comprehensive Sexuality Education Week for MYP 1-4 students at AIS.

Instead of usual lessons, this will be a week where students will focus on Key Concepts from UNESCO's International Technical Guidance on Sexuality Education booklet. Please click the link to find out more.

While our curriculum is based on the Key Ideas and Learning Objectives detailed in the booklet, having open, frank, and honest discussions at home on these topics is the best way to ensure a holistic approach to sexuality education. Your child will learn about important topics within the areas of:

- Relationships
- Values, Rights, Culture and Sexuality
- Understanding Gender
- Violence and Staying Safe
- Skills for Health and Well-being
- The Human Body and Development
- Sexuality and Sexual Behaviour
- Sexual and Reproductive Health

For more details, please refer to the booklet. Students will also enjoy a half day authentic relating workshop led by facilitator, (and beautifully named) Ronski Kosky. Additionally, students in MYP 1 will visit the Gender Museum on Friday 2 February.

Please use opportunities at home to instigate conversation about these topics throughout the week and thereafter, if possible. For questions, please contact Ms. Holly: hc@ais-aarhus.dk.
